

Meeting Notes July 3, 2005-

Attending: Laura Cordes, Chris Nelson, Bob Stuller, Ronna Stuller, Pat Bolles, Sheila Herbert, Peter de la Rosa-

Eminent Domain-

Protest at City Hall, Tuesday, July 5th at 6PM. Greens should wear NL Greens t-shirts. We should direct media questions to Bob or candidates. Ronna will keep in touch with Fort Trumbull folks to see what their next steps are.-

Campaign-

Green Party Convention 2005 was held at Golden Street Gallery Sunday, June 26th. Bob has it on tape. There was good discussion among those attending. People liked meeting downtown and in an accessible space. Laura sent Gregory a note thanking him again for the space. Candidates thus far are Ken Hanson and Andy Derr for City Council, and Ronna Stuller for Board of Education. Chris will determine whether or not candidates need to petition again for ballot access.-

Tag Sale-

Laura will be out of town on July 17 and proposed rescheduling tag sale. Laura will talk with Ken and pick a new date.-

Thinking Green-

We are shooting for a Wednesday night slot at 7 or 8 PM this fall. So far the hosts are Sheila & Emmet and Laura & Chris. Ronna, Andy, and Ken will host after the election is over.-

Cliff Thorton, Director of Efficacy-

Cliff is considering running as a Green for Governor. He is interested in coming to a chapter meeting and he would like to do an event in New London. Ronna will see how flexible he is and suggest that he come to a meeting after the election, possibly in December.-

Other business-

Chapter Representative: Andy Derr has been serving as the NL representative at the monthly CT Green Party meetings. He would like to pass on this responsibility. There is a unanimous nomination of Rick Buell.-

Listserve management: Andy would like also to pass on the responsibility of managing the email list and notifying folks of NLGreen and green related meetings and events. Bob Stuller agreed to serve in this capacity.-

Next Meeting-

Sunday, July 31, 6PM at the home of Bob and Ronna Stuller-

Respectfully Submitted by: Laura Cordes-
