

New London Green Party Nominating Meeting

Tuesday, September 3, 2019 – Campaign Office, 165 State Street, New London

In attendance: Frida Berrigan, Andy Derr, Sharmaine Gregor, Andrew Lopez, Bud McAllister, Mirna Martínez (facilitator), Libby Nye, Ronna Stuller (recorder), Bob Stuller.
Guests: Kenric Hanson, Adam Mattila

Start time 6:45pm.

- I. Frida gave an update on her mayoral campaign: Kris Wraight will be campaign manager; development of platform is in process, with input from residents being actively sought; the launch event will be held on Friday 9/13. Increase of voter registration and voter turnout is a major goal.
- II. Nominations for municipal offices
 - A. City Council: Enough signatures were submitted to gain ballot status. Mirna nominated Ronna Stuller to be candidate for City Council, 2nd by Frida; nomination was approved unanimously. There were no other nominations.
 - B. Board of Education: Mirna nominated Sharmaine Gregor, 2nd by Bud; nomination was approved unanimously. There were no other nominations.
- III. There was a brief discussion about campaign logistics and needs. Candidates can be supported by volunteers for door knocking, phone/text banking, letters to the editor, and staffing the office. We wish to utilize the office as a community space as much as possible, and discussed possible movies to show there (Fix It, Colonialism Is Extinction, We Are Not Ghosts were suggested.)

Bud moved to adjourn, 2nd by Mirna; passed unanimously. End time 7:35pm.

Meeting was followed by celebration, photos, and completion of candidate documentation.
